SATURDAY EVENING SEPTEMBER 14.

A FAMILYWITH EXTRAORDINARY LARGE FEET .- Down in Grayson county, in the vicinity of Dickey's mill, Ky., there is a most remarkable family named Hunton. It is composed of father, mother, and eight sons and daughters, all of the children full grown. Not one of them weighs less than 175 pounds, and the second oldest son tips the beam at 275. This, however, would not be uncommon, as large people are abundant in Kentuck; but every member of the family has feet of most extraordinary size, far out of proportion to their bodies. There are no manufactured shoes large enough for them, and it keeps a country shoemaker busy supplying padal coverings for the entire family. Not one of them uses a shoe smaller than that made on a 15 lest, and the largest foot measures eighteen inches in length. No other white persons in Kentucky are known to have feet approaching these in s'z, although colored people frequently wear No. 14 shoes, the ordinary foot requiring a 7 or an 8

STEPPED ON SEVENTEEN RATTLESNAKES -Mr. A H. Honkle, of Newton, N J , while surveying the county line between Sussex and Warren counties near Newton last week stepped on a large flat stone. In a momenbe beard a rattling, buzzing noise under bis feet and saw a large rattiesnake coiled near the stone darting its tongue in and out Another snake was just crawling under the stone. He jumped off the stone out of reach of the coiled snake and called his as-istants, Amos Vaugorder, Daniel Shoemaker, James Kishpaugh, and Frank Kimbal. They killed the coiled snake with sticks. It measured 5 feet 6 inches, and had twelve rattles. When they raised the stone they found quite a hole under it filled with seven teen raitlesnakes. The smallest was a foot long and the largest 3 feet 6 inches. The men set on them with their clubs and killed

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

THE GAZETTE, chronologically, is in the NINETIETH year of its existence, and is not only the oldest paper in the State, but, with few exceptions, in the country. Notwithstanding the fulness of its years, it has kept, and will continue to keep, abreast of the times in all that pertains to a NEWS paper, furnishing its readers dail; with a perfect mirror of passing events, domestic and foreign. Its facilities for obtaining news as they increase are taken advantage of and used for the benefit of its readers, who are thus kept of interest politically, socially, financially or commercially. Special attention is given to matters concerning the State and its welfare, while its local columns thoroughly posted as to all that is contain all that is of the slightest interest to Alexandrians. Its regular correspondence from Washington and Richmond are features of peculiar interest, as attested by the eagerness with which they are read and copied by other papers, while its editorial department, conducted with reference to the best interests of the city, State and country, will continue to advocate what is believed to be right, just, honest and patriotic. With a view to the interest of merchants, farmers and all interested, its commercial columns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to be faithful and accurate.

Through all this section of the State, and in all parts of the country where Virginians have located, there will the GAZETTE generally be found, and thus as an advertising medium it has few equals outside the large cities. In the household, counting room and workshop it is an ever-welcome visitor, acceptable alike to old and young, the grave and the gay. HARDWARE, CUTLERY, &c., for the country trade, at 328 King, corner of Royal street, Alexandria.
